About us

A caring family-owned company offering an affordable cremation service throughout Yorkshire and Lincolnshire.

Hello, my name is Leanne, thank you for your interest in Simple Cremations...

I worked in the hospital and public mortuaries in Hull for twenty years.

When talking to bereaved families it became very clear to me that there was an unnecessary stress added to the already grieving families.

A question that arose time and time again...

How are we going to pay for the funeral?

This upset me more and more, the fact that there was no affordable alternative to the ever increasing fees of the funeral director.

So I decided to do something about it, I resigned from a job that I loved and set up Simple Cremations.

We have helped hundreds of families with honest prices and no hidden costs.

What is a simple cremation?

A simple cremation is the simplest form of funeral. We offer both a direct cremation (no service) and a simple cremation (with service).

Direct Cremation

We will transport your loved one to the crematorium on the day of cremation, they will be taken through the chapel.

There is no service at the chapel, no mourners attend.

If you would like your loved ones ashes returning we are happy to do this free of charge within Yorkshire and Lincolnshire.

Alternatively we can arrange to have the ashes scattered for you.

By separating the cremation from the celebration of life, memorial or gathering it means the family has great flexibility in deciding when and how they wish to remember their loved one.

Sometimes family and friends are unable to attend the funeral. Having the celebration of life at a more convenient date can be a great option.

Simple Cremation

On the day of the funeral we will transport your loved one to the crematorium and take them in to the chapel. (A wheeled bier is used to move the coffin, alternatively the family can bear the coffin if they wish.)

We aim to arrive early and have your loved one resting in the chapel before family and friends arrive. We can place candles, flowers and photographs should you wish. Attendees will be led in to the chapel shortly before the service begins.

We try our very best to cater for any special requirements you may have for your service. Please feel free to contact us to discuss any particular wishes.

Did you know?

A vicar, humanist or celebrant will charge around £215 to lead a service. However, we offer a FREE personal service led by Leanne.

No upfront payment required.

We understand that the loss of a loved one can be an unexpected expense. No payment is necessary until after the cremation.

Help claiming

We have helped many families claim their funeral expenses. Please contact us if you have any questions.

Why choose a simple cremation?

A simple cremation is an increasingly popular choice.

Traditional funerals can be expensive. Extravagant coffins, expensive hearses, limousines and costly flowers will quickly add up to a lot of money.

Value: People now tend to feel less obligated to have such a funeral and see little sense in putting unnecessary financial strain on themselves and their family.

Personal meaning: It can be hard to relate to the traditional form of funeral, sombre undertakers and the slow procession of the hearse.

Flexibility: You can choose to say goodbye to your loved one in a way that is best for you and your family.

Many families choose to have a small informal service at the chapel and perhaps have a gathering afterwards to share memories and stories.

Alternatively some choose to have no service at the crematorium and instead have a family gathering after the cremation has taken place.

Simple Cremations Personal Service

The vast majority of the funeral services we perform are led by Leanne. Leanne provides a very personal service based on the cherished memories of family and friends.

The Simple Cremations Personal Service is complimentary, we do not charge for it.

The service can have anything that your family wish to include, for example favourite music and poems.

Although it is often completely non-religious some families still like to have the Lord's Prayer. If anyone would like to say a few words this is fine too.

In this way family and friends can celebrate the life of their loved one in an authentic, genuine and meaningful way. Choosing a ceremony that relates more to how someone lived seems more appropriate to families, with relatives and friends taking more meaning from a personally relevant celebration.

"The service was beautiful,
it was exactly what Pete wanted.
You went above and beyond all expectations.
Truly grateful for what you did."

Lynne & Steve
